The course is intended for degree students of the University of Helsinki who are completing or who have completed Finnish 3 or Finnish 4 courses or who otherwise have a sufficient level in Finnish (CEFR A2). The aim is to strengthen and activate the student’s language skills in order to improve both oral and writing skills. Participants practise speaking and writing in Finnish and discuss various everyday life topics. In addition, the course consists of listening and reading tasks, which will support the student’s own productive tasks. In order to complete the course, one needs to attend the classes regularly (at least 75 %) and to do the given homework. Grades 0–5
