

All courses (Modules) taught at The University of Jordan are free of charge for the exchange students.

Starting from The University of Jordan main website (www.ju.edu.jo) you can find the study plans and the course descriptions by following the links Academics → Appropriate Faculty → Appropriate Department → Study plan. Then the course description can be found in the study plan.

In addition, the following link will provide the courses available for students to choose from (<http://regweb3.ju.edu.jo:7777/reginqapp/OfrdCorsEngInq.jsp?x>) in any particular semester. If there is (/English) written next to the course name then the course is definitely taught in English (e.g. Principles of Psychology/English). If there is no (/English) next to the course name then it might be taught in Arabic or English or a mixture of both. Most of the courses at The School of Business, and most masters courses at the School of International Studies, and the scientific faculties, however, are taught in English.

The following link is for the Department of Arabic Language and Literature <http://arts.ju.edu.jo/Departments/Home.aspx?DeptName=Arabic%20Language>. If some of your students are not advanced in Arabic to the level where they can follow classes in Arabic and wish to study Arabic for Speakers of Other Languages, they can do so at the Language Center <http://ujlc.ju.edu.jo/>.

Below are some popular undergraduate courses in English which we guarantee that at least one section will be offered each semester in the English Language.
